

Partnership with Bumble BFF

Top comments

"I never would have thought of using an app for friends. I'm in the process of trying to move to a new city where the only person I know is my boyfriend. I will definitely have to look into this once I move to see if I can meet some new people. And also for my next solo trip! Thanks for sharing!"

"That's a good idea. I sometimes meet up with people via Couchsurfing even when I'm staying in a hostel but 90% of Couchsurfing is creepy dudes, so it might be nice to be able to screen people."

"Ahh perfect! I never knew it could be used like that. I'm going to recommend that to my friend who's just moved abroad. Thanks :)"

"That's a great idea, looking forward to checking it out. I've moved abroad and started over quite a few times without knowing anyone, that sounds like such a handy app to have!!"

"Totally considering this for my solo travels! Will have to check out your post :)"

"Oh wow, I've never heard of this app! Gotta check it out!"
